

Secrets of Grand Central Scavenger Hunt

Saturday, September 29, 2018 @1 pm

Ninety-minute interactive exploration of Grand Central Station's history and surprising sites including mysterious markings, "ghost" trains, the Whispering Gallery, the Transit Museum Annex, hidden art, historic photos, and more.

Non-refundable $20 optional add-on to the "Do As You Please" bus trip which is a separate registration (round-trip Hampton Jitney bus leaves NSPL parking lot @9:30 am drop-offs at the New York Public Library/Bryant Park which is within walking distance to Grand Central and departs from the New York Public Library @6 pm costs $25 per passenger).

For ages 7 to 107. Parents/guardians must sign waivers stating they will be responsible for their children.

Registration opens Saturday, September 1 for NSPL cardholders (4 registrations for each library card). Registration opens for all other beginning September 5 (space permitting).

In person registration only.

North Shore Public Library

250 Route 25A

Shoreham, New York 11786-2190/ (631) 929-4488

info@northshorepubliclibrary.org